May 20, 2022 - Yadkin Cultural Arts Center presents "Chatham Rabbits" in the Willingham Theater. North Carolina is a place so identifiable by its separate regions - the mountains, the Piedmont, the coast - that it has the tendency to feel indescribable, meaning one can conceptualize the state as a mashup of places rather than a single locale. The art and artists born from the state often embody that same sense of blended regions, borrowing from broad cultural traditions and plumbing the histories of others' stories on the way to telling their own. Chatham Rabbits exemplify North Carolina's tradition of producing artists who embrace the state's many cultural resources and diverse musical traditions. In their marriage and in their music, Chatham Rabbits' Austin and Sarah McCombie also blend their own histories into a shared musical experience. Cost is $25.00 per person, show time is 7:30 p.m. Info: Yadkin Arts Council (336) 679-2941.
